This will be an interactive session that combines lecture with hands on activities designed to help individuals connect cognitively and emotionally with the content. The trainer specializes in a humanistic approach to teaching unconscious bias that allows participants to explore in a learning environment that fosters self-discovery rather than defensiveness. We will define unconscious bias and discuss the neuroscience related to it. We will look at the many ways it manifests from selection bias, to value attribution to group think. Finally, we will focus on strategies for mitigating deeply ingrained stereotyping both at the individual and institutional levels.

The Theater Art Gallery MARCH Show/Reception

The Theater Art Gallery

756 Plumas Street

Yuba City, CA 95991

05:00 PM - 07:00 PM PST

Rosalynd Bliss, 5303294442

rozjb@comcast.net

Beginning March 4 and throughout the month, The Theater Art Gallery in Yuba City welcomes painter VERN HILL and ceramicist PAUL SPOTO as our featured artists in March. Spend an evening at our gallery enjoying the Artist Reception Thursday, March 5, from 5 - 7 pm. The event is free with complimentary refreshments. Come and chat with the artists as you view their creative work. The art show and sale continues through March 28. The gallery is located next to the Sutter Theater at 756 Plumas Street, downtown Yuba City. Hours: Wed - Sat, 12 to 5 pm. Call 908-5704 or 329-1733. Visit us at <https://www.suttertheater.org/the-theater-gallery> or on Facebook.

Born in Montana, VERN HILL came to Yuba City in 1948 to visit his aunt Rachel. Two years later, he joined the U.S. Navy for a two-year stint, and then he enrolled in art classes at Yuba College. There he met Phyllis who became his portrait model and wife, a year later. Vern finished his BA degree at San Jose State University and became a Registered Occupational Therapist. In 1966 he and Phyllis came back to the area, moving into the historic Howard House on East Butte Road where they raised four children. After retiring as a State Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor for Yuba, Sutter, and Colusa counties, Vern renewed his interest in painting during a trip to Costa Rica, visiting his daughter Julie and her husband Rick. Julie invited him "to come paint with me," which he did in 2011 and has been painting ever since.

Ceramic artist PAUL SPOTO was born and raised in Yuba City and has lived in Sutter county his entire life. In 2010 he started working with clay, creating his first piece to test a wood stove he built. Throwing on the potter's wheel came easily to him, and the tactile sensation of working with clay is something he really enjoys. Paul fires most of his work in a kiln using propane, but occasionally he uses a wood kiln. Both propane and wood allow him to create glazes with brilliant colors. He prefers creating functional pieces, so that his ceramics can be used daily. Paul joined The Theater Art Gallery as a resident artist in 2014, and his beautiful ceramic pieces have an earthy yet elegant quality in an array of colors.

The Theater Art Gallery is open every week, Wednesday through Saturday, from noon to 5:00 pm. Call 908-5704 or 329-1733. Our friendly staff welcome you and admission is always free. Proceeds from The Theater Art Gallery benefit the Sutter Performing Arts Association's effort to renovate the Sutter Theater, turning it into a viable community center. For more information, please visit our website at: <https://www.suttertheater.org/the-theater-gallery> or visit us on Facebook.

It's the summer of 1906 in New England. The middle son of the Miller family, 16 year-old Richard, just graduated as class valedictorian from high school and is heading to Yale in the fall. Idealistic Richard loves Muriel, the daughter of the Miller's narrow minded next door neighbor. What happens at the July 4th celebration ultimately affects Richard's view of the world and his life as he becomes a man.

Middle-aged, married, overworked and overweight, Barney Cashman wants to join the sexual revolution before it's too late and arranges seductions with three different women: Elaine Navazio proves to be a bundle of neuroses; Bobbi Michele a 20-ish actress who's just too kooky and finally Jeanette Fisher, a gloomy, depressed, housewife who happens to be married to Barney's best friend. But alas, each time something prevents the affair from happening.

You've got to see this Neil Simon comedy to find out what happens to Barney's fantasies and dreams!

In a pay-to-play game, social media advertising is quickly becoming a must for brands. The days of simply posting on Facebook and expecting all your followers to see everything are well over. It's all about how you target your audience, build customer journeys and get people to your site to make a purchase. This class will help you understand how to set up ads, give you suggestions for how much to spend and how to track the success of your efforts.

Level I is a requirement before taking this class
